

Australian College of Mental Health Nurses Northern Territory Branch

North Australia Winter Symposium

REFLECTION, RENEWAL, REBUILDING

17 - 19 JULY 2024 | CHARLES DARWIN UNIVERSITY
WATERFRONT CENTRE, DARWIN, NORTHERN TERRITORY

Program

Major Sponsor

Northern Territory Primary Health Network

Sponsors

CDU School of Nursing and Midwifery

Remote Territory Healthcare

NT Department of Health, Mental Health, Alcohol and Other Drugs Branch

Trisha's Fabric and Fashion

Wednesday 17 July 2024

HALF-DAY WORKSHOPS

Morning /afternoon refreshments provided

0900-1200

Hope for Recovery

Noelene Armstrong, Lived Experience Network

1300-1600

Stay Strong; A strengths-based approach to engagement and care planning

Josie Povey & Chantal Ober, Menzies SHR

1630-1930

WELCOME EVENT

Get together at Precinct Terrace - Darwin Waterfront

Thursday 18 July 2024

Includes morning/afternoon refreshments & lunch

0830	Registration
0900	Housekeeping and Introductions
0905 - 1030	OPENING CEREMONY Welcome to Country, Larrakia Nation Welcome and thanks to sponsors Opening Address, Prof Rhonda Wilson, FACMHN, President, ACMHN
1030-1100	MORNING TEA
1100-1130	Back to the Future: reflections on renewal and rebuilding, Pat Bradley
1130-1200	Mental Health Services Central Australia Region: Strengths opportunities and challenges, Ali Thorn
1200-1230	Early Workforce Building - A narrative presentation on providing a 8 week mental health course to NT Diploma of Nursing students, Denis Blackford
1230-1315	LUNCH
1315-1345	An Acute Mental Health Inpatient Unit Nurse Therapist and the Elephants in the Room, Kerry Sims
1345-1415	CVP NT; Monitoring, Advocacy, Inspection and Complaints for persons accessing NT Mental Health Services - aiming for the lowest level resolution, Susan Burns
1415-1430	AFTERNOON TEA
1430-1500	Caesar's Red Cloak: Symbols of Leadership for Health Service Leaders, Robert Parker
1500-1530	Maintaining your integrity: Supporting ourselves and our team, who says what the right amount of resilience is? John Kelly
1600	SUNSET WATCHING AT MINDIL BEACH MARKETS A special space for attendees and friends to relax, enjoy the sunset and market food (drinks available for purchase at market or BYO) RAAF Jets Fly Over from 1700-1830hrs

Friday 19 July 2024

Includes morning/afternoon refreshments & lunch

0900-0915	Registration and Housekeeping
0915-0945	INVITED SPEAKER: Grass Roots care in the Bush- Real care, delivered by Real people, Kylie Straube, NP/CMHN, Remote Territory Health Care
0945-1030	Forum: Reflection, Renewal, Rebuilding - professional issues, Professor Rhonda Wilson (President ACMHN) and panel
1030-1100	MORNING TEA
1100-1130	Darwin Medicare Mental Health (Formerly Head to Health): Exploring the role of this emerging model of care in the NT, Pam Marwood
1130-1200	Pharmacist-led patient medication education sessions in the inpatient mental health ward, Jaxy Johnson & Kirsty Luck
1200-1230	Infection Prevention and Control Measures in Mental Health: Reflection, Renewal, and Rebuilding, Paul Dimond
1230-1330	LUNCH
1330-1400	Challenges and Successes in Implementing a Joint Police, Ambulance and Mental Health Co-Response Program in the Northern Territory, Amanda Rogers
1400-1430	Adult Mental Health Team Nurse Practitioner-led General Practitioner Liaison (AMHT NP-CPL) Transition Support Programme: An innovative collaborative-based model of care to inform practice change and enhance consumer's transition workflow, Elisha Aigbokhan
1430-1500	Reflection, Renewal, Rebuilding - Establishing Dual Diagnosis Nurses in Top End Mental Health & AOD Services, Ingrid Herbert & Zoe Fisher
1500-1530	AFTERNOON TEA
1530-1600	The Therapeutic Garden: Reflection Renewal and Rebuilding, Mel Robinson and Esther McAdam
1600-1630	Summation and thanks to sponsors, Professor Rhonda Wilson
1630-1930	PARTING IS SUCH SWEET SORROW Farewell Function, Get together at Precinct Terrace - Darwin Waterfront